Appeal for Co-Operation.

An urgent appeal to the citizens' as sociations of the District to co-operate Planned by Women's Section of Rein making the testimonial a success was sent out yesterday by the committee. Each association is asked to appoint a committee for the purpos of soliciting contributions to the band fund. In addition, the newspapers have been asked to receive donations to the fund.

While less than $25 has been donated thus far, it is believed that Washingtonians, who have been enjoying the free band concerts for number of years, will welcome the opportunity to record their appreciation in a substantial way and that a good size collection will be taken up at the reservoir grounds. The money will be divided among the band members.
